

CITE-seq protein as orthogonal truth: PCA stays strong on common types, Fisher-Rao wins the rare type a RNA Fisher-Rao embedding, colored by PROTEIN-defined type (orthogonal)

b Protein markers define the labels (independent of RNA)

c RNA clustering vs orthogonal protein truth

d Fisher-Rao best recovers the rare DC type (same latent, Euclidean ruler fails)

